

January 2019

As a Feinstein Leadership School we are committed to teaching our students to be caring of others.

Where morals and values meet academic excellence
A Feinstein Leadership School

FACULTY CONTRIBUTORS

Principal:
Mrs. Mary Tetzner

Feinstein Coordinators:
Mrs. Jean Ventura,
Mrs. Charlene Baer

Teacher Contributors
Art Teacher
Mrs. Celeste MacPhee

Remembering and Honoring Our Veterans

This past November, in what has become a yearly tradition, the Saint Cecilia School Feinstein Jr. Scholars made Veteran's Day cards. The cards were hand delivered by 1st grade teacher, Mrs. Treglia to veterans living at the Rhode Island Veterans' Home Community Living Center in Bristol, RI. Every Feinstein Jr. Scholar, ranging in ages 3 to 14 years old, was excited to make a small token of appreciation for our veterans by honoring their service to our country. While students were making their cards, they learned about the symbolism of our flag and how it has been represented by artist Jasper Johns. The students learned that they can brighten someone's day with their talents, while also fostering a sense of community and service to others.

Student Contributors

Pre-K - Grade 8

"Helping to better the lives of others is the greatest of all achievements".
-Alan Shawn Feinstein

Photo Highlights:

Cards made by Feinstein Jr. Scholars in grades Pre-k through Grade 8 were sent to Rhode Island Veterans.

A Fantastic Fall Food Drive

The Saint Cecilia School Fall Food Drive began officially on Wednesday, November 20th. The drive ended with a grand total of just under 3,000 food items!

All classrooms kept a count of the number of cans and nonperishable items they collected. Saint Cecilia School Feinstein Jr. Scholars from several grades helped assemble and pack boxes. The food collected was donated to the Blackstone Valley Food Pantry as well as the Saint John Paul II Food Pantry. Feinstein Junior Scholars also assembled food baskets that were distributed to families at the Agnes Little School.

The recipients expressed their gratitude for the Saint Cecilia School Feinstein Junior Scholars generosity. The Feinstein Junior Scholars next food drive is scheduled for the Spring.

Honoring Our Grandparents

On Tuesday, November 20th St. Cecilia's Feinstein Jr. Scholars honored their grandparents by hosting Grandparent's Day. The day began with a Mass of prayer and thanksgiving. Grandparents sat with their grandchildren during Mass. All were invited back to school to enjoy some light refreshments with their grandchildren. A photographer took keepsake portraits of grandchildren with their grandparents to capture wonderful memories. Feinstein Jr. Scholars shared activities such as interviewing, turkey projects, games, and crafts with their grandparents. An amazing time was had by all.

Spreading Holiday Cheer

Feinstein Jr. Scholars collected just under 3,000 canned goods in the St. Cecilia School Thanksgiving Food Drive.

Twenty baskets of food was taken to needy families at the Agnes Little School in Pawtucket.

Middle School Jr. Scholars adopted a family of five. On December 20th a single mom of four picked up all the wonderful presents the Jr. Scholars were able to give to her family.

Feinstein Junior Scholars' Generosity Brings Warmth to Many in Need

Kindergarten Feinstein Jr. Scholars collected 148 hats, mittens, and socks which will be distributed to families in need by the St. Vincent DePaul Society.

Pre-K Junior Scholars Collect Pajamas

Pre-K Jr. Scholars collected 20 pairs of pajamas to be distributed to children in foster care and homeless shelters. Scholastic Books donated a book for every pair of pajamas collected.

Student Council Cooks Breakfast and Feeds Students in Fifth through Eighth Grade

On November 19th Feinstein Jr. Scholar members of the Student Council prepared a delicious breakfast for students in grades five through eight. The breakfast menu included pancakes, eggs, sausages, muffins, English muffins, juice, milk, and other delectable treats! A hearty breakfast was enjoyed by all!

Watch Mr. Feinstein on his monthly PBS show "Our Great Kids". The first Saturday of the month at 10:00am on PBS 2 & Cox 8.

Feinstein Junior Scholars Create Thanksgiving Placemats

Seventh and Eighth grade Feinstein Jr. Scholars created Thanksgiving placemats for their church buddies in Kindergarten and first grade.